

Osama Hassan Hussein

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

A political leader, party chairman, and youth activist who leads a centrist civilian political movement, dedicating his efforts to achieving peace, freedom, and building a new Sudan. He has a strong record in founding and leading political and youth organizations and launching civil initiatives opposing war.

Following the April 2023 war, he emerged as an active voice within the civil forces, dedicating his party's efforts to advocating for a peaceful political solution. He remains committed to achieving peace and firmly believes in building a new Sudan through political dialogue, rejecting violence, and establishing a democratic civilian government founded on justice, diversity, and the rule of law.

Core Qualifications and Values

Academic Qualification

- Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Sudan University of Science and Technology.

Core Values and Principles

- Peace and Freedom: Committed above all to achieving peace and freedom for the Sudanese people and contributing to the foundation of a new Sudan.
- Justice and Democracy: Firmly believes in building a democratic and just Sudan, characterized by peace, diversity, and the rule of law.
- Organized Action: Strives to realize goals through structured political and community engagement.

Skills and Competencies

Core Skills

- Leadership and direction of community initiatives and campaigns.
- Management and organization of youth and political entities.
- Negotiation and coalition-building.
- Strategic planning and decision-making.

Specialized Training

- Peacebuilding.
- Youth and the future.
- Constitution-making.
- Governance systems in Sudan.
- Democracy in Sudan.

Political and Leadership Experience

- Founder and President, Democratic Alliance Party for Social Justice.
- Leads a centrist civilian political party, actively engaged in alliances with democratic civil forces.
- Founder, Sudanese Popular Commission Against War — a civil body working in peace advocacy and civilian mobilization.
- Co-Founder and Executive Office Leader, Sudanese Youth Gathering.

Stance on the 2023 Conflict

Took a clear anti-war stance, consistently advocating for an immediate ceasefire, protection of civilians, and a comprehensive return to a negotiated political process.