

Sulafa Elnour Abdellah

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

A seasoned Sudanese educator and trade unionist, combining advanced academic qualifications with extensive field experience in the education sector.

She began her career as an English language teacher, later assuming leadership responsibilities within the Ministry of Education, eventually advancing to lead union work as the Chairwoman of the Steering Committee of the General Education Workers' Union.

She possesses a rich professional record in curriculum development, educational program planning, and negotiations with government bodies, in addition to her wide experience in institutional and union work, which positions her as one of the most prominent active figures in Sudan's education sector today.

Professional & Educational Background

Previously:

- Chairwoman, Steering Committee of the General Education Workers' Union in Sudan (2022 – present).
- Teacher and Student Activities Director, Ministry of Education – Khartoum State (2010 – 2022).

Education:

- Master's Degree in Educational Administration and Planning, Omdurman Islamic University (2022).
- Postgraduate Diploma in Curriculum and Teaching Methods, Open University of Sudan (2019).
- Bachelor of Arts in English Language, Omdurman Islamic University (2010).

Core Values and Guiding Principles

- Respect
- Justice
- Self-Development
- Responsibility
- Transparency
- Teamwork

Areas of Expertise

- Curriculum development and lesson planning
- Educational training and career guidance
- Union leadership and organizational work
- Management of student activities and educational programs
- Strategic and administrative planning
- Media content management and community engagement

Political Experience

- Previously served as Chairwoman of the Steering Committee of the General Education Workers' Union, a position that required direct political engagement with state institutions and stakeholders, as well as representing a significant segment of society in national dialogues on education policies and workers' rights.
- Played a prominent role in leading union activities during complex political and transitional contexts, demonstrating strong negotiation skills and the ability to influence public policies.
- Leadership Member, Sudan Founding Alliance (Tasis).

Political Experience

- Teaching English at both primary and secondary education levels.
- Developing educational content aligned with national standards.
- Assessing student performance and monitoring their academic progress.
- Organizing cultural and educational events in the role of Director of Student Activities.
- Designing and delivering training courses and workshops for teachers.
- Leading union work and advocating for the rights of education sector workers