

Amani Musa Kodi

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Amani Musa Kodi Kowa is a Sudanese political leader and community activist affiliated with the Sudan People’s Liberation Movement (SPLM). She brings together a unique blend of organizational expertise, humanitarian and fieldwork experience, and academic knowledge.

Her political journey began within the student movement, gradually advancing to senior positions until she became a member of the SPLM Political Leadership and its negotiation delegation. She is recognized for her prominent role in women’s empowerment, political guidance, and cadre training, alongside her active contributions to managing humanitarian and refugee affairs during times of conflict.

She has consistently demonstrated a high capacity to bridge fieldwork with organizational leadership, establishing herself as one of the most prominent female political figures in modern Sudan — particularly in addressing issues related to the Nuba Mountains and other war-affected and conflict-prone regions.

Professional Profile

Previously:

- State Minister of Communications and Information Technology, Government of Sudan.
- Deputy Chairman, Democratic Unionist Party (Original), Sudan.

Education:

- Bachelor’s Degree in Economics and Political Science.
- Participant in several prestigious international training programs, including:
- Young Political Leaders Program, Brussels – European Union.
- Governance Program for Ministers and Senior Government Officials, National School of Administration (ENA), Beijing, China.
- Fellow, African Leadership Institute (AFLI), Cape Town, South Africa.

Core Values & Guiding Principles

- Justice
- Women’s Empowerment
- Fieldwork Engagement
- Organizational Commitment

Areas of Expertise

- Secretary of Statistics and Information, Nuba Mountains Students’ Union in Sudanese Universities and Higher Institutes (2007–2008).
- Member of the Forty-Member Council, University of Juba Students’ Union (2008–2009).
- Social Secretary, Nuba Mountains Students’ Association – University of Juba.
- Humanitarian Affairs and Fieldwork Management.
- Political Negotiation and Conflict Resolution.
- Political Training and Leadership Development.
- Women’s Issues and Community Development.
- Political Guidance and Awareness Building.
- Statistics, Information, and Data Analysis in Humanitarian Contexts.

Political Experience

- Joined the Sudan People’s Liberation Movement (SPLM) in 2005.
- Held central leadership positions within the SPLM, including membership in the Political and Leadership Council.
- Participated as a member of the SPLM negotiation delegation in the political process.
- Actively engaged in women’s empowerment initiatives and political organization within the movement.

Professional Experience

- Worked with humanitarian organizations in the management of refugee camps in Baida.
- Conducted political and leadership training at the Jubedi Institute, contributing to cadre development.
- Participated in political and moral guidance within SPLM institutions.
- Handled statistical and information files to support field-level decision-making.