

Maleek Alhasan Aburoof

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Malik Elhasan Yousif Aburof is a prominent Sudanese figure from Omdurman, with a solid background in law, policing, and diplomacy. He graduated from the Police Academy in 1981, later earned a Bachelor’s degree in Law, received specialized diplomatic training, and obtained a diploma in English language. In November 2019, he was appointed as Chief (Nazir) of the Rufa’a tribe, a role that reflects both his social standing and the trust placed in him by his community, alongside his long professional experience in state institutions.

His key strengths lie in his ability to mobilize and rally support, and in playing an active role in coordinating popular efforts to defend the Country and its institutions. This makes him an influential and central figure in today’s Sudanese landscape, committed to safeguarding the unity and sovereignty of Sudan.

| Profile                                                                                                                                         | Experience and Positions                                                                                                                                                                                               | Academic Profile Qualifications                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Skills and Areas of Expertise                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Date and Place of Birth: 1959 – Omdurman, Sudan</li><li>• Nationality: Sudanese</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Chief (Nazir) of the Rufa’a Tribe — November 2019 to present</li><li>• Former Police Officer — received advanced training in legal and police sciences</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), Cairo University – Khartoum Branch</li><li>• Diploma in Police and Legal Sciences, Sudan Police Academy (1981)</li><li>• Diploma in English Language, CELTE Institute</li><li>• Specialized Training Course, Institute of Diplomatic and Strategic Studies</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Strong knowledge of Sudanese and international law</li><li>• Experience in administrative and traditional leadership (Native Administration)</li><li>• Proficiency in English</li><li>• Broad understanding of diplomatic affairs and public relations</li><li>• Police and legal work</li><li>• Native Administration and tribal affairs</li><li>• Diplomatic work and foreign relations</li></ul> |