

Mabrouk Mubarak Saleem

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Dr. Mabrouk Mubarak Sleem is a prominent Sudanese politician, born in Kassala in 1958. He combined both academic and political work, earning a Bachelor’s degree in Commerce from Damascus, and a Master’s and Ph.D. in History and Civilization Studies from Al-Fateh University.

His political role emerged in the 1980s as a Member of Parliament and Political Bureau member of the Democratic Unionist Party. He went on to lead several political and military movements, including Fath Forces and Free Lions, and played a key role as one of the lead negotiators in the Eastern Sudan Peace Agreement of 2006.

He held ministerial positions between 2006 and 2018 in the Ministries of Transport, Roads and Bridges; Environment and Forests; and Animal Resources.

Profile

Formerly:

- Minister of Animal Resources (2012–2018)
- Chief Negotiator, Eastern Sudan Peace Agreement (2006)
- Chairman, Free Lions Party (since 1999)
- Member of Parliament (1986–1989)

Education:

- Primary and Secondary Education: Kassala
- Bachelor’s Degree in Commerce – University of Damascus (1983)
- Bachelor’s Degree in History
- Master’s Degree in History – Al-Fateh University, Tripoli
- Ph.D. in History and Civilization Studies – Al-Fateh University, Tripoli (2004)

Core Values and Guiding Principles

- Justice
- Integrity
- Independence
- Peace
- Freedom
- Patriotism

Areas of Expertise

- Political and parliamentary work
- Party and organizational leadership
- Political negotiations and peace agreements
- Government administration and development
- Historical studies and academic research
- Investment and business management

Political Profile Experience

- Member of Parliament (1986–1989)
- Member of the Political Bureau and Parliamentary Bloc – Democratic Unionist Party
- Chairman, West Kassala Council (1990–1993)
- Member of the Executive Committee and Deputy Rapporteur – Democratic Unionist Party
- Participant, National Democratic Alliance’s Conference on Fundamental Issues – Asmara (1994)
- Commander, Fath Forces (until 1997)
- Commander, Free Lions Forces and Chairman of the Free Lions Party (since 1999)
- Secretary-General, Eastern Sudan Front (2003)
- Negotiator, Eastern Sudan Peace Agreement (2006)
- Observer Member, Comprehensive Peace Agreement (2005)
- Founding Member of Taqaddum – Addis Ababa, and Leadership Member of Tasis – Nairobi

Professional Experience

- Minister of Transport, Roads and Bridges (2006–2009)
- Minister of Environment, Forests and Urban Development (2009–2011)
- Minister of Animal Resources (2012–2018)
- Chairman of the Board, Red Sea Hills Company for Gold and Precious Stones Trading – UAE (Dubai)
- Chairman of the Board, Al-Mahari Tourism Company – Saudi Arabia (Jeddah)

Achievements:

- Author of the book “Tabaya Abss: Between Yesterday and Today” (1997)
- Prepared several specialized research papers and articles on history and politics